LITERARY AND CULTURAL COMPETITIONS

Sri Sri Sri Abhinava Vidya Teertha Mahaswamigal of Dakshinamnaya Sri Sringeri Sharada Peetham, a great scholar and lover of संस्कृतम्, blessed us and started Geetha Govinda Samskrita Sangha (GGSS) in 1976 in Sringeri Mutt, Bangalore. GGSS strives to nurture and preserve संस्कृतम् and संस्कृतिः. GGSS is a non-profit organization that is operating through over nine branches in Bangalore and one branch in Chennai. GGSS also conducts dharmic activities like pujas during special occasions, Jagannatha and Sharadamba rathotsavas, Sharannavaratri, summer camps for school students, annual Inter-school competitions (Pratibha), and the like in order to provide encouragement for संस्कृतम्. GGSS provides scholarships for students, financial & medical assistance and also lends a helping hand to the needy during special occasions like upanayana and marriages.

'Pratibha' is an annual inter-school literary and cultural competition promoting संस्कृतम् and संस्कृतिः organized by Geetha Govinda Samskrita Sangha in the month of June every year in Bangalore. Pratibha is being conducted since the year 2000, with an aim to provide a platform to school-children to bring out their talent in literary and cultural events focusing on संस्कृतम् and Indian Culture and grow as a true Indian. Every year the winners are awarded with invaluable books such as the Valmiki Ramayanam, Srimad Bhagavatam, Bhagavadgita, Ashtadhyayi, Amarakosha, etc.

The competitions are open to school students of Bangalore, from 2nd standard to 10th standard. All competitions will be held offline in this year's Pratibha 2023.
